

My role as NPO over the last few months hasn't been as active as I'd probably like. My main Lib Dem work has been focused on the GE and more recently a by-election in Islington. However I have still stepped in and supported comms during the interim period.